Eltech H-500 Induction Cap Sealer

el-seal

Eltech H-500, Handheld Induction Cap Sealer is specifically designed for packagers who require a handheld sealing process with low production volumes. The tabletop model is compact and ideal for production environments where a bottle conveyor is not practically necessary. Built-in guides ensure operators properly line up containers for sealing. A digital timer lets the operator know when the sealing process is completed. This model is suitable for batch-type production and can be used continuously for 24hrs x 365 days. Ideal for laboratory use, stability testing, R & D facilities, short runs test marketing.

An Added advantage of the H-500 Induction cap sealer is its slim and highly efficient sealing head design which can seal from 20 mm to 120 mm with a single-sealing head. The height adjustment mechanism also houses bottle locators for easy bottle positioning.

If you have a product filled in a container NO MATTER WHAT SHAPE & SIZE, WE WILL SEAL IT at your desired line speeds
